Koźmiński University (formerly known as The Leon Koźmiński Academy of Entrepreneurship and Management) is located in a rapidly growing industrial district of Warsaw. It is a private business school with a strong international reputation, which was originally established as the International Business School in 1989 to meet the demand for managerial and entrepreneurial skills that arose over the last decade in Poland. It took the name of Leon Koźmiński Academy of Entrepreneurship and Management in 1997, and became Koźmiński University in 2008. Originally it served the needs of entrepreneurs and managers from Warsaw, but the number of students coming from other regions of Poland now constitutes 70% of the total population. There are approximately 6,000 students at Koźmiński University.

Koźmiński University was the first school in Central and Eastern Europe to receive EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System) accreditation. It is the only EQUIS, AACSB and AMBA accredited University in Poland and Central- Eastern Europe.

Kozminski Master in Management Program was ranked by the Global Masters in Management Ranking 2012 "Financial Times" on the 28th place, Global Masters in Finance Ranking 2013 - 19 place.

Its EMBA programme was listed on 46 place among top 100 MBA programs in the world, and number 1 in Poland in 2013.

College of Law was ranked number 1 among Polish Law schools as well according National Ranking 2013.
