Location

Sevilla is the capital of Andalucía with a population of 704,198 in 2010 making it the fourth largest city in Spain.

“The second is in front of the Bell Tower of La Giralda, the one of the main landmarks in Seville, close to where I spent my second placement. Seville is the capital of Andalucía and the fourth largest city in Spain.

It is very much the cultural home of traditional Andalusian customs and practices, such as bullfighting, flamenco dance and music and carnival. La Giralda is a cathedral that was built onto the side of a Moorish Arabic place of worship, thus sets a beautiful example of typical Andalusian architecture that combines Christian and Arabic influences. “
