

Degree Programmes

This study placement is available for Languages and Social Sciences Students (LTS or native speakers)

All courses will be in Spanish.

Number of Places: 2

This document provides basic information about the university. Please do your own research before applying.

Application Process

To apply for this opportunity you must submit an online application.

Link to the online application can be found in the How to Apply section in each university ad. Online application form requires registration, please register with your Aston University e-mail.

Please note that you can submit one application only. As a part of the application, you must provide three universities in order of preference, which should also be specified in your motivation letter.

You are required to submit one motivational letter, which must be focused on your first priority.

Please do not contact the partner university directly as all the applications are processed by Aston's International Projects Team.

The University

Universitat de València
Av. Blasco Ibáñez, 13
46010
València
SPAIN

Website (in Spanish)

Website (in English)

Universitat de València was, founded over five centuries ago by the Juries of Valencia, has become a modern, public university that teaches all areas of knowledge: social, economic and legal sciences, experimental sciences, engineering, health sciences, educational sciences and the humanities. More than 45,800 undergraduate students and 8,600 postgraduate students take classes taught by more than 3,300 professors, lectures and researchers at the campuses (Blasco Ibáñez, Burjassot-Paterna and Tarongers) with the support of over 1,700 administration and service staff.

The university community is committed to being a university of reference: we are ranked second in Europe in receiving Erasmus students and fourth among Spanish universities in research.

According to the most prestigious international rankings, we are the ranked fourth in Spain.

What it is like to study at Universitat de Valencia

Check out the following links Video 1 Video 2

Location

Valencia is the third largest city in Spain and the capital of Valencia. The city has a global city status. It is known globally for the Falles, a traditional festival in March in which different groups called “casal faller” construct huge figures which are burnt during a big festival. During the festival the famous traditional food paella is being served.

Semester/key dates

Semester 1: Mid-September – end of December

Semester 2: End of January – end of May

Academic Calendar

Courses Available

Students will be registered with the department of Translation and Interpreting but can usually take courses from other departments. A list of faculties is available here.

For a list of course examples, please explore the following links:

- Link 1
- Link 2
- Link 3
- Link 4
- Link 5

It may also be possible to assist in English conversation classes during the year.

Workload: 30 ECTS credits per semester

Living in Spain

- Accommodation:
Students can live in halls of residence owned by or affiliated with the University. DISE (the University information service) can provide a list of rents and properties available for house shares.
- Student's Life
- Exchange student's

Next steps if you are successful

1. You will be invited for a face-to-face or phone interview with the Placements Team
2. You will be nominated by us to the partner university
3. You must complete and send us the Erasmus application form
4. Following the nomination you must in most cases, complete a registration online. The International Placements Team will contact you about this.
5. Read the Study Plan (available on Blackboard from June)
6. Complete a Learning Agreement once your modules have been approved by your Placement Tutor

Visa

Please ensure that you have an up to date passport before applying to Universitat Pompeu Fabra and also that you fulfil any visa requirements for entering and studying in Spain. For further information, please see the website of the Spanish Embassy in London.

Careers + Placements

www.aston.ac.uk/careers

