If you are unable to provide the required documents at the point of application, you should forward these to the relevant Admissions Office (see the Online Guidance Notes <http://www1.aston.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/apply/guidance/> for contact details).

Please ensure that you include on any correspondence to the University your application reference number, full name, date of birth and course name. You are advised that in some instances a decision on admission will not be made until all supporting documentation is received.

These documents must be uploaded before you can make an application to us:

Research Proposals should be in sufficient detail to enable the relevant research group or supervisor to decide if your experience is appropriate and if your proposed topic is relevant to existing research themes at Aston. The outline should be a substantial document, typically 6 to 12 pages in length. Please check this with your proposed School of study before submission. You can find out more about this at <http://www1.aston.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/apply/guidance/#proposals>

These documents (where appropriate to you) are required for your application, so if you cannot provide them at the point of application, you must forward them to the relevant Admissions Office as soon as possible:

Reference letters, if you have already obtained them.

Please note that you have the option of supplying contact details for referees in the Reference section of the online application form, whom we will contact on your behalf, so you do not need to upload references to continue with your application.
